FINAL MATCHES ON IN Y.M.C.A. TOURNEY

Games at South Side Park Today for Championship.

The final matches in the local Y. M. C. A. tennis tournament are on this afternoon at South Side Park and Muller and Haymond are contesting for the singles championship while Heintzelman and Miller against Clark and Bell will fight for the honors in doubles.

The play began this afternoon at 2:30 and more spectators than any day heretofore were present in the gallery. The remarkably good exhibition of tennis yesterday in the two semi-final matches in which the teams that play today won, is thought to be responsible for the large crowd that turned out this afternoon.

The weather yesterday afternoon was almost ideal for the games and some portions of the matches were of the most brilliant brand of tennis that has ever been seen on local courts.

The scores yesterday in the semi-final doubles were as follows: Heintzelman and Miller defeated Rock and Riggs, 8-6, 6-4. Clark and Bell defeated F. Haymond and P. Haymond, 6-3, 6-4.

This last match was rather a surprise to many of the local tennis followers who had picked Frank and Paul Haymond as the strongest of the double teams.

ONE OF THESE STARS IS ALMOST SURE TO WIN 1916 ALL-COMERS' TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

WILLIAMS, JOHNSTON AND McLOUGHLIN ARE PICKED TO BATTLE FOR TITLE.

(By HAROLD JOHNSON.)
Can the Comet come back? Tennis devotees are pondering this question on the eve of the all-comers' championship at Forest Hills, N. Y., starting August 28.

With William M. Johnston, present title-holder, and two former champs—Maurice E. McLoughlin and Richard Norris Williams, in fine physical trim students of the courts game are stumped in their efforts to predict the 1916 national master of play.

Wherever the net game thrives the impression prevails that a three-cornered battle royal is certain to follow in the big tourney which will bring together all the leading racquet wielders in the United States. Maybe the aggressive Karl Behr or the sensational George Church may come through—other enthusiasts argue.

In grappling the dope on McLoughlin the wisecracks are styled by a clossal IF. The Comet, IF IN SHAPE, they contend, will give both Johnston and Williams a tough battle. This anxiety about the Californian's condition dates back to last year in the finals for the national title when young Johnston outlasted the conqueror of Wilding who finished the match on sheer pluck.

McLoughlin simply burned himself up the previous year in defense of the Davis cup.

Johnston stands a great chance of pulling through with another victory. This slim, boyish looking Californian has a wonderful assortment of strokes, particularly a forearm drive and half volley, knows how to play his opponent and never is flustered. His game this season has been up to his standard of 1915.

Williams, champion of 1914, who learned his tennis in England, is one player without a weak stroke. No one can approach his back court attack and his service goes over with a sizzling display of pep. His second ball is always as speedy as his first.

However, Williams with all his playing skill is erratic, a weakness that makes his supporters hesitate about picking him as the next title holder.

will have to order their golf botnet and expressed from home.

Speaking of names there's Rowdy Elliott's. After looking him over the Cubs dubbed him Bunny. He is almost as ferocious as a rabbit.

We can't imagine why Stuffie McInnis should be dissatisfied with his job. He has a swell chance to get into another world's series if he sticks around 10 years.

Grafton B. & O. Plays M. M. Com. Today

The strong Grafton Baltimore and Ohio team will be here this afternoon to play the Fairmont Mining Machine Company. The Mining Machine boys have been practicing diligently to be in shape for the game as they realize the Grafton boys have a good, strong team that is hard to defeat.

HIPP NOW READY FOR THE OPENING

Lewis-Oliver Players Will Present "For His Sake."

Things have been pretty busy around the Hippodrome theatre during the past two weeks and things are all ready to open the theatrical season Monday matinee August 21 when the great Lewis-Oliver Players will be the attraction for the entire season, presenting two new plays each week that will be staged complete with all special scenery and effects.

For the opening play Mr. Lewis has selected "For His Sake" which he considers to be the very best play he has ever presented in this city. Of course "Jack" and Miss Grandin will be seen in the leading roles and the supporting company Mr. Lewis claims to be the best he has ever had and will include many well known players.

It will be welcome news to the patrons of the Hippodrome to know that Mr. Lewis, has engaged a four piece orchestra and select musical program will be given at each performance.

Last year Mr. Lewis had one of the best shows that ever appeared in Fairmont at popular prices and we have "Jack's" word for it that the present company is far superior to any he has ever had, so be on hand Monday to welcome "Jack" back home.

WORTHINGTON.

Mrs. Ellen Parish, an aged resident of this town, is critically ill from diseases incident to old age. She will be 90 years old at her next birthday, September 9th.

Z. F. Davis is performing the duties of assistant cashier of the First National Bank while Lawrence G. Sandy is absent on his vacation.

Bill Mulligan, who created some trouble near here recently, was again before Justice Parrish on Wednesday. It appears that on that day he loaded up with Point Marion whiskey and undertook to run things to suit himself at Hutchinson. A telephone call was sent here for officers and Constable Bassett went up and with the assistance of Special Officer Frank McNamee, he was arrested and brought to town. He was charged with being drunk and disorderly and for his conduct before the justice and additional charge of contempt of court was placed against him. He was fined five dollars and costs on each charge and in default of payment was taken to jail.

Mrs. Henry King was visiting friends in Monongah on Wednesday.

One Minute Talks with Ballplayers

ARTHUR WILSON, CHICAGO CUBS.
"The long distance from the home plate to the backstop in Pittsburgh used to be a terrible strain on Larry McLean. In the hot weather. Every time a wild pitch or passed ball got by him Larry would cuss out the man who laid out the Pirate plant."

"One night Barney Dreyfuss was seated on the veranda of the hotel where the Giants were stopping. Larry had chased eight balls that afternoon. He approached Dreyfuss and tapped him on the shoulder."

"Barney," he said, "you've got a great ball park but it's lacking in one detail. You should have taxicab service at the home plate for catchers to help them chase wild pitches and passed balls!"

DICK DUDOLPH, BOSTON BRAVES.
"I was thinking the other day when Bob Emslie was tendered a reception in Brooklyn in recognition of his having served 25 years as umpire, what wonderful eyesight he must possess. Emslie sure is a wonder but I don't think he has much on George Jones, Jr., gentleman of color, who checks hats in the big dining room of a hotel at Saratoga, New York."

"Sometimes George will have 200 hats in the racks at once. All straw hats look more or less alike yet George never has booted one in handing out the headgear to its owner. He calls them right so often that he ought to make an ideal umpire."

Monongah, were calling on friends here Thursday evening.

Lewis McIntire went to Clarksburg on Wednesday for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Dr. George L. Howell.

Monard Glover and Jimmie Davis were in town on Thursday calling on their Democratic friends.

Misses Ruby and Gladys Martin, of Oakland, Md., arrived here on Friday morning for a visit with relatives and friends.

Surveyors will begin work on Monday morning in laying off the W. E. Shaver farm in town lots. As but little building ground remains in the town there should be but little difficulty in disposing of the lots in this new addition since the location is convenient.

SUNDAY GAME AT BAXTER.
The Annabelle baseball team will travel down the river tomorrow to play the Baxter team on the Baxter grounds. Both of these teams have good fast players, the Annabelle boys having obtained Scharadin, the former coach of the Fairmont High school to play with them at Baxter tomorrow afternoon. The game is called for three o'clock.
